

Repose of Mother Cassiane

Sadly, on July 17, 2012 (Old Style), another sister of the Convent of the Protection of the Mother of God in the Knyazhevo district of Sofia, Bulgaria, Nun Cassiane, reposed.* At 92 years of age, she was the oldest of the convent's sisters. Having entered the convent at fourteen years of age, she was distinguished by her simplicity of heart and ascetic qualities. Even in her last months, when she was no longer ambulatory, the sisters report that she continued to make prayer ropes, serving the sisterhood and the Church in this way. Вечная память! Memory eternal!

* We reported earlier this month the repose of the venerable Mother Fevronia.
